What is the Legal and Financial Program?

As part of the EAP, you also have access to a free 30-minute consultation with a local attorney or financial counselor on issues such as real estate, retirement planning, divorce and separation, budgeting/debt reconstruction, and trusts and estates. Further legal and tax preparation services are discounted 25 percent.

What if I'm just looking for information?

You can access many useful articles, tip sheets, and checklists by calling or signing in to the EAP and Work-Life website. Many helpful topics are available, including relationships, communication, life in the workplace, and emotional well-being.

What else does the website offer?

It includes dozens of locators that allow you to search for health and wellness information, child care providers, adoption services, schools and colleges, daily living needs, older adult care, and much more. The site also offers calculators that can help you with everything from mortgage payment calculations to how much to save for your children's college education.

Who can use EAP and Work-Life?

All employees and household members.

Are these services confidential?

Yes. EAP and Work-Life are confidential according to law.

Who pays for these services?

Your company pays all costs when you and members of your household use the program. If additional assistance or services are needed, you will receive referrals that consider your preferences, medical plan, and financial circumstances. Please refer to your insurance plan booklet or your Human Resources department for specific information about your medical plan.

How do I access these services?
